

Kyu consists of eX-girl frontwoman Kirilola and the exceptional koto player Michiyo Yagi. AFAIK the duo no longer exists, and I believe this is their 2nd (and last) gig. According to the taper they haven't played since this show. A very original mix of electronics and koto. Ranges from noisy improv to beautiful ballads to ambient soundscapes - sometimes with a medieval flavour. Fans of stuff like Haco, Hoahio or After Dinner are going to love it. I'll put a little sample in the 1st message
