

Neil Diamond has been working in the music business for 50 years, and it's time to celebrate. And to do just that, Neil will be embarking on a massive tour across North America and Europe starting on April 7, 2017 in Fresno, California. The tour will take him across the US, Europe and the UK.

And now, here's some Christmas from that "Sweet Caroline" singer.

Captured about a 1/4 of the way back on the floor slightly right of center, we get a slightly different set list with a number of Christmas songs included in place of the Beatles Medley and a few of the "newer" tunes.
